This book is dedicated to

Father God, who so loved me and called me to the ministry, and Jesus the Christ, who died to save and set me free, and to the Holy Spirit, who gives me inspiration to fulfill purpose and destiny.

It is also dedicated to my very loving and encouraging wife Susan, and to our precious children, Racheal, Reuben, and Richard, and through them – all of my posterity.

Our Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. "

Acknowledgements

Divine destiny includes every important aspect and purpose of a Christian's life. When I stepped into mine, my wife Susan was already prepared by God for me. So I wish to thank my soul-mate for accepting God's Will for us, and being an integral part of my destiny, and for sharing the joy, labor, and love of the ministry together.

Out of our union of love was born purpose, and this was manifested in the lives of our blessed and highly favored children – Racheal, Reuben, and Richard. These are God's blessings to us, and God's gifts to the world. I wish to thank my three children for being actively involved in my ministry and taking my vision into the next generation.

When God gives you a grandchild like the one He gave me through my daughter, all I can say is praise the Lord! I wish to thank baby Joshua (who just celebrated his first birthday), “my precious jewel,” for the joy that he brings to me and the family.

Every minister should have armor bearers and ministry successors who will run with the vision. God certainly gave me faithful ones who fully support my calling.

I refer to my precious mother, Minister Eileen Samlalsingh. Thank you for your prayer covering, proofreading of the manuscript, and great wisdom.

And to Rev. Laureen Kissoon, thank you for your literary skills in proofreading the manuscript, along with your words of encouragement and prayers. And to your precious daughter Sarah Kissoon, whose young and sharp literary mind made a positive contribution.

To Minister Cheryl Harripaul, thank you for your unceasing prayers.

To Rev. David Teelucksingh, a friend and associate minister, thank you for your much prayer.

Deliverance

To my international associate minister, and special friend, Rev. Cheryl Dunn, thank you for being my number one fan, and ministry representative in Canada.

And to the special flock that the Lord has placed within my care – Miracle Church.

And lastly, to you, the reader. If this is your first time with one of my books, I am honored to be with you. Thank you for entrusting me with your time, your heart, and a part of your destiny.

God bless you all.

Love always,

Pastor Phillip Samlalsingh

INTRODUCTION

DELIVERANCE TO DESTINY

I find it very interesting that the first public sermon preached by our Lord Jesus Christ, and particularly among devout religious folks, was a message on deliverance. Hear the words of our Lord from Luke 4:18, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.” This verse of Scripture accurately describes the purpose of Jesus the Messiah and was prophesied by Isaiah the Prophet. Isaiah said this concerning Jesus:

“The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound” (Isaiah 61:1).

This is what Jesus came to do! Consequently, all that our Lord ever did after He made this profound declaration at the onset of His ministry – was to set the captives free!

My pastor, the late Rev. Wilson Rampersad (affectionately called Brother Wilson), had not only preached what Jesus taught, but also practiced what Jesus did – He delivered the captives!

Under Brother Wilson’s ministry, I personally saw the ministry of deliverance in full force. The spiritually oppressed, emotionally depressed, and demon possessed were all set free. But there was something that disturbed me as I attended his usually packed-out church meetings. I observed that the majority of people that filled the prayer lines for deliverance were – Christians, and in most cases many of them manifested some kind of demonic trait which required deliverance. I could not understand how and why this was happening to “believers.”

Nevertheless, as a result of my close affiliation with this anointed man of God and his ministry, I received an impartation of gifts from the Holy Spirit that equipped me for my calling.

Now after several years of hands-on experiences, and a sound biblical understanding of the Deliverance Ministry, I eventually discovered the answers to how and why believers and unbelievers alike are affected by evil spirits. And not to mention, the answer to one of the most asked questions: “Why do evil things happen to God’s people?” We will explore this and other related questions throughout this enlightening book!

I believe that everybody needs deliverance from something! And although it is an irrefutable fact that Christ’s death on the Cross provided redemption from the “curse of the Law,” the truth is – it did not extricate us from the “consequences of the curse.” This profound revelation truly helps us to understand why destiny doors are locked for so many believers.

Why do believers suffer financially?

Why do believers suffer bad marriages?

Why do believers suffer adverse circumstances?

Why do believers suffer constant bad health?

Why do believers struggle to fulfill God's purpose?

This book will answer the primary cause of these consequences. However, we must also remember, that the only kind of suffering Scripture will endorse, is the kind that we experience for living righteous and godly in Jesus Christ. And I refer to: “Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:10). “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Timothy 3:12). Unfortunately, most Christians are not suffering for this righteous cause, but instead, they suffer unnecessarily from curses that they should be delivered from. Thus, our Lord unequivocally teaches us from His Word how to be delivered from the cause and consequences of curses – and you will discover this throughout the book!

The apostle Paul gave the Church an insightful revelation of what Jesus actually came to do for us, when he said, “Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification” (Romans 4: 25). In other words: “Christ Jesus suffered and died on the cross to redeem us from the curse of the Law which was caused by transgression, but was resurrected from hell and the grave to deliver us from the consequences of that curse.

Are you ready for your deliverance?

- Are you ready to leave the spiritual shackles and slavery of Egypt and be free from Pharaoh's strongholds forever?
- Are you ready to leave your enemies and wilderness behind, and pass through what seems like an impassable Red Sea?
- Are you ready to cross over your Jordan River and enter the land of prepared promises?
- Are you ready to possess your inheritance and fulfill the purpose of your destiny?
- Are you prepared to simply walk through the "open door" that our Sovereign King has set before you?

In these last days, just before the trumpet sounds its clarion call for the dead in Christ to rise: and the living saints hear His voice say, "Come up hither," – the Blood-bought Church of the Lord Jesus Christ shall experience a spiritual metamorphosis, a transformation that will manifest into a revolutionary army – a remnant of born again Christians – revived and restored, whose lives are not entangled again with the yoke of bondage, and whose destiny is preordained. These Blood-washed, Spirit-filled, Sanctified-saints will soon storm the gates of hell and deliver every captive! Are you willing to become one of them? Then "Purpose is the key" and "Deliverance is the door."

Discover the biblical key, and unlock your destiny's door. Jesus said, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved." You were born to be free, so experience Deliverance today – experience Jesus!
