

Where is God in the Storm?

Written by

Shandi Lang

Illustrated by

Grace Lang

Copyright 2008

Shandi Lang

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form, except for the inclusion of brief quotations in review, without the permission in writing from the author/publisher.

ISBN 978-1-60458-233-8

INTRODUCTION

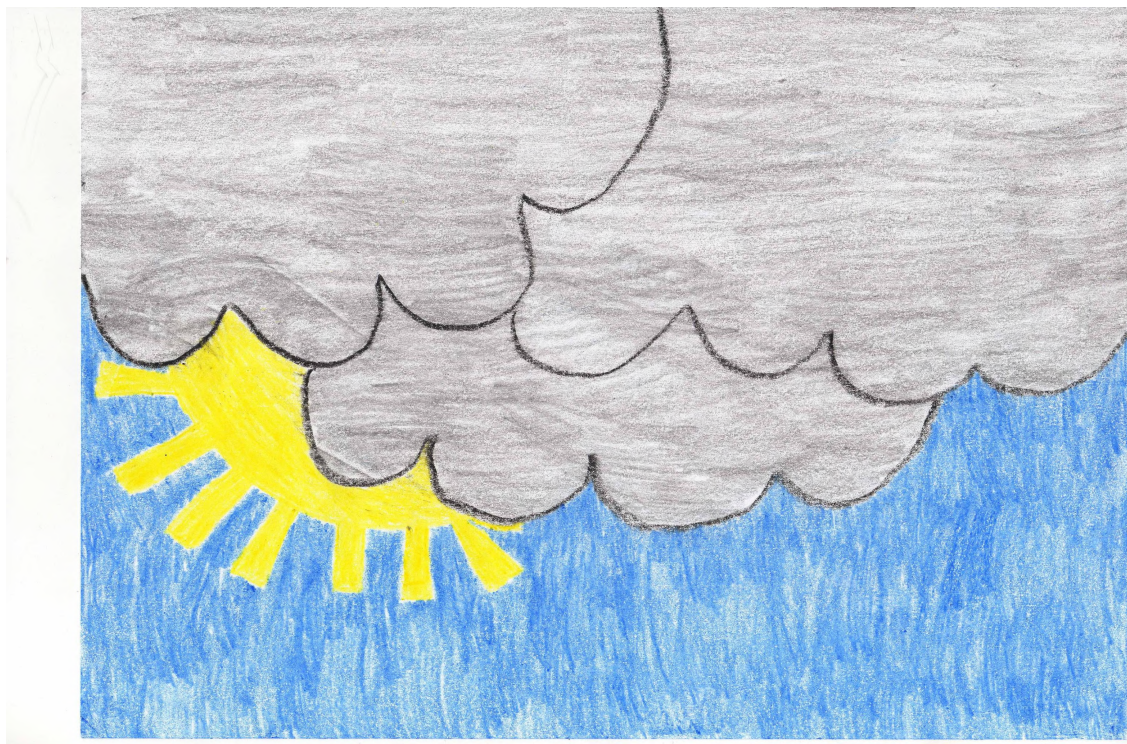

On May 4, 2007, the town of Greensburg, Kansas, was hit by an F5 Tornado in the dark of night. 95% of the town was destroyed, and several people lost their lives. My best friend, Karie Sue Hertel, and her three children Lucas (10), Jagger (6), and Breckyn (5), witnessed it first hand. Many of the pages in this book come from experiences Karie Sue and her children had. My family was blessed to help them and others in the days that followed the storm. My husband, Scott, and I were so involved in the aftermath of the tornado that our three children Grace (5), Tuck (5), and Elijah (2) had many questions and thoughts regarding the storm. I want my children and you to have a sense of security in the midst of all that is uncertain in times of life's storms. When everything is out of our control, there is one who is in control - God. What a blessing to be able to cling to that when there is nothing else left to hold on to.

DEDICATION

~ To Karie Sue ~

Your phone call came at 2:00 AM and it was wonderful to hear your voice.

I think until that moment I had held my breath...wondering...waiting...praying.

When the sun disappears and the clouds roll in...

God is here.

When the rain falls down and flowers bow their heads...

God is here.

