This book is dedicated to

The blessed Holy Trinity. Father God, who so loved me and called me to the ministry, and Jesus the Christ, who died to save and set me free, and to the Holy Spirit, who gives me inspiration and power to fulfill my life's purpose and destiny.

It is also dedicated to my very loving and encouraging wife, Susan, and to our precious children, Racheal, Reuben and Richard – and our first grandson, Joshua – and through them – all of my posterity.

Our Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. "

Acknowledgements

Divine destiny includes every important aspect and purpose of a Christian's life. When I stepped into mine, my wife Susan was already prepared by God for me. So I wish to thank my soul-mate for accepting God's Will for us , and being an integral part of my destiny, and for sharing the joy, labor, and love of the ministry together.

Out of our union of love was born purpose, and this was manifested in the lives of our blessed and highly favored children – Racheal, Reuben, and Richard. These are God's blessings to us, and God's gifts to the world. I wish to thank my three children for being actively involved in my ministry and taking my vision into the next generation.

When God gives you a grandchild like the one He gave me through my daughter, all I can say is praise the Lord! I wish to thank baby Joshua (who just celebrated his third birthday) for the joy that he brings to me and the family.

Every minister should have armor bearers and ministry successors who will run with the vision. God certainly gave me faithful ones who fully support my calling.

I refer to my precious mother, Minister Eileen Samlalsingh. Thank you for your prayer covering, proofreading of the manuscript, and great wisdom.

To Rev. Laureen Kissoon, thank you for your literary skills in proofreading the manuscript, along with your words of encouragement and prayers. And to your precious daughter Sarah Kissoon, whose young and sharp literary mind made a positive contribution.

To Minister Cheryl Harripaul, thank you for your unceasing prayers.

To my international associate ministers and special friends, Rev. Cheryl Dunn and husband Jim Dunn. Thank you for being very supportive and for representing my ministry in Canada.

To the special flock the Lord has placed within my care in Trinidad, Miracle Church.

And lastly, to you the reader. If this is your first time with one of my books, I am honored to be with you. Thank you for entrusting me with your time, your heart, and a part of your destiny.

God bless you all.

Love always,

Rev. Phillip Samlalsingh

INTRODUCTION

DELIVERANCE TO DESTINY

I find it very interesting that the first public sermon preached by our Lord Jesus Christ, and particularly among devout religious folks, was a message on deliverance. Hear the words of our Lord from Luke 4:18, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.” This verse of Scripture accurately describes the purpose of Jesus the Messiah and was prophesied by Isaiah the Prophet. Isaiah said this concerning Jesus:

“The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound” (Isaiah 61:1).

This is what Jesus came to do! Consequently, all that our Lord ever did after He made this profound declaration at the onset of His ministry – was to set the captives free!

My pastor, the late Rev. Wilson Rampersad (affectionately called Brother Wilson), had not only
