Introduction

I was sitting in my bed one night and I started to think about the mistakes we can make with finances when we do not seek God or ask Him for wisdom with finances. I believe that it is extremely important to consult God about everything, especially concerning your finances. As I sat there meditating, I began to ponder on the scripture in Psalms 32:8 that says, "I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go: I will guide you with my own eyes." After considering this particular scripture in my spirit, I had to admit to God and myself that I had not acknowledged Him in regards to my finances, as I should have. Today, I realize that it is extremely important to consult God about everything, especially concerning your finances. Proverbs 3:6 says, "In all your ways acknowledge Him and he will direct your paths." After lying there for a while, I got up and went into my living room, and began to write in my journal. As I lay there, I could hear these words, "How do you receive financial favor from God?" Feeling very unworthy, I asked God to show me how to receive this financial favor from Him, because I knew that it was He alone that could grant me this financial favor.

Receiving God's Financial Favor

The dictionary defines favor as "something done or granted out of goodwill, rather than from justice or for remuneration; a kind act." I knew that I needed God's face to shine upon me. I needed an act of grace and kindness granted from God Himself. I began to ponder in my spirit just how to receive this financial favor from God.

Here is what I received in my spirit from God in order to prepare myself for receiving this financial favor.
