Dedication

I dedicate this book to the memory of my grandmother, Gertrude Mylan. I know she spent many hours on her knees in prayer calling out to God for my deliverance. Granny, thank you for taking three little girls to church and building a strong foundation of truth in our lives so that one of us could write this book - a testimony of deliverance and hope to all who read it.

Granny died two years before I returned to Jesus, but I believe that somehow she knows. Also, both of my sisters are living for God because she taught us God's Word and made sure we attended church regularly.

My grandmother never gave up on me or treated me any differently than she did my sisters. I thank you Granny for giving me a heritage in which I could draw strength from in the years to come. Thank you for being faithful to God and praying for me. You did a great job!

Thank you, Jesus, for the opportunity to write this book about Your delivering power, mercy and love for all of Your lost lambs. I was one of Your MIAs (Missing in Action).
