

MY CAMELOT
A PLACE TO REMEMBER

William “Bill” Monken

MY CAMELOT — A PLACE TO REMEMBER

Copyright © 2011 by William Monken

All rights reserved. No portion of this book may be reproduced in any form—mechanically, electronically, or by any other means, including photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system—without permission in writing from the author.

ISBN: 978-0-615-56308-4

Library of Congress Control Number: 2011943810

— Dedication —

I would like to dedicate this book to my Mother, Louise Monken, who was always there for me. She always believed in me when no one else did. She always wiped away my tears when I was hurt. She always made me feel safe when I was afraid. But most of all, she always loved me.

To my dad, Omer, for being that strong, kind, and gentle man who taught me how to work with my hands, who taught me to love the wilderness by being a Boy Scout Leader and spending so many nights by the old camp fire with me, and who showed me how to have patience by never getting angry with me when I couldn't do things correctly. Dad showed me how to be a man.

To my brothers and sister for sharing this wonderful time of our lives together and for being the greatest friends a guy could ever have.

To my grandparents, Grandpa and Grandma Steinkoenig, for being my second home.

Memories of Camelot

The stories and memories of the Monken Family as told by Bill Monken.

Pictured with him are his two dogs, Tullie and Jackson.

Contents

Dedication	iii
Memories of Camelot	vi
Chapter 1 Living on the Farm	1
Chapter 2 Belleville Here We Come	14
Chapter 3 South High Street	19
Chapter 4 North High Street	39
Chapter 5 Living on Kadlec Drive	71
Chapter 6 Back to Belleville	82
Chapter 7 The Boy Scouts	105
Chapter 8 Special Memories	115
Some Final Thoughts About My Camelot	123