

Matilda's Travels

Clowning Around

A Lesson in Uniqueness

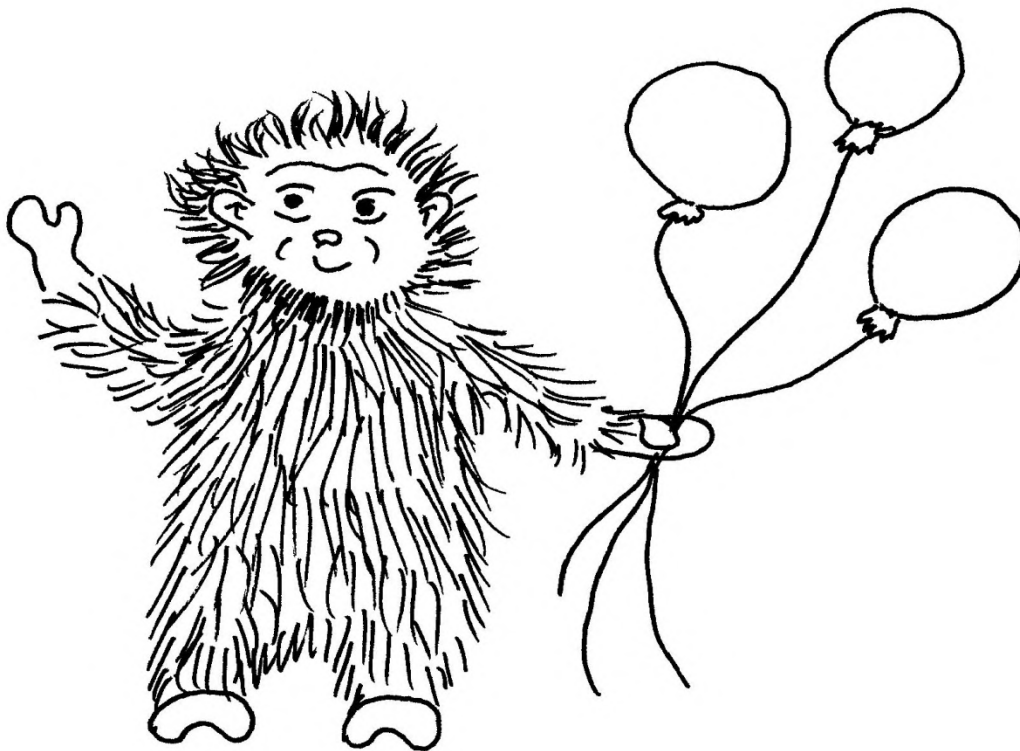

By Maryella Sterling

Matilda's Travels

Clowning Around

A Lesson in Uniqueness

By Maryella Sterling

Matilda's Travels

Clowning Around

Text and Illustrations Copyright 2011

by

Maryella Sterling

All rights reserved including the right of reproduction in whole or in part.

Dedicated to my six precious grandchildren,
Samantha, Colby, Roger, Isaac, Carson, and Westin.

SPECIAL THANKS

FOR EDITING

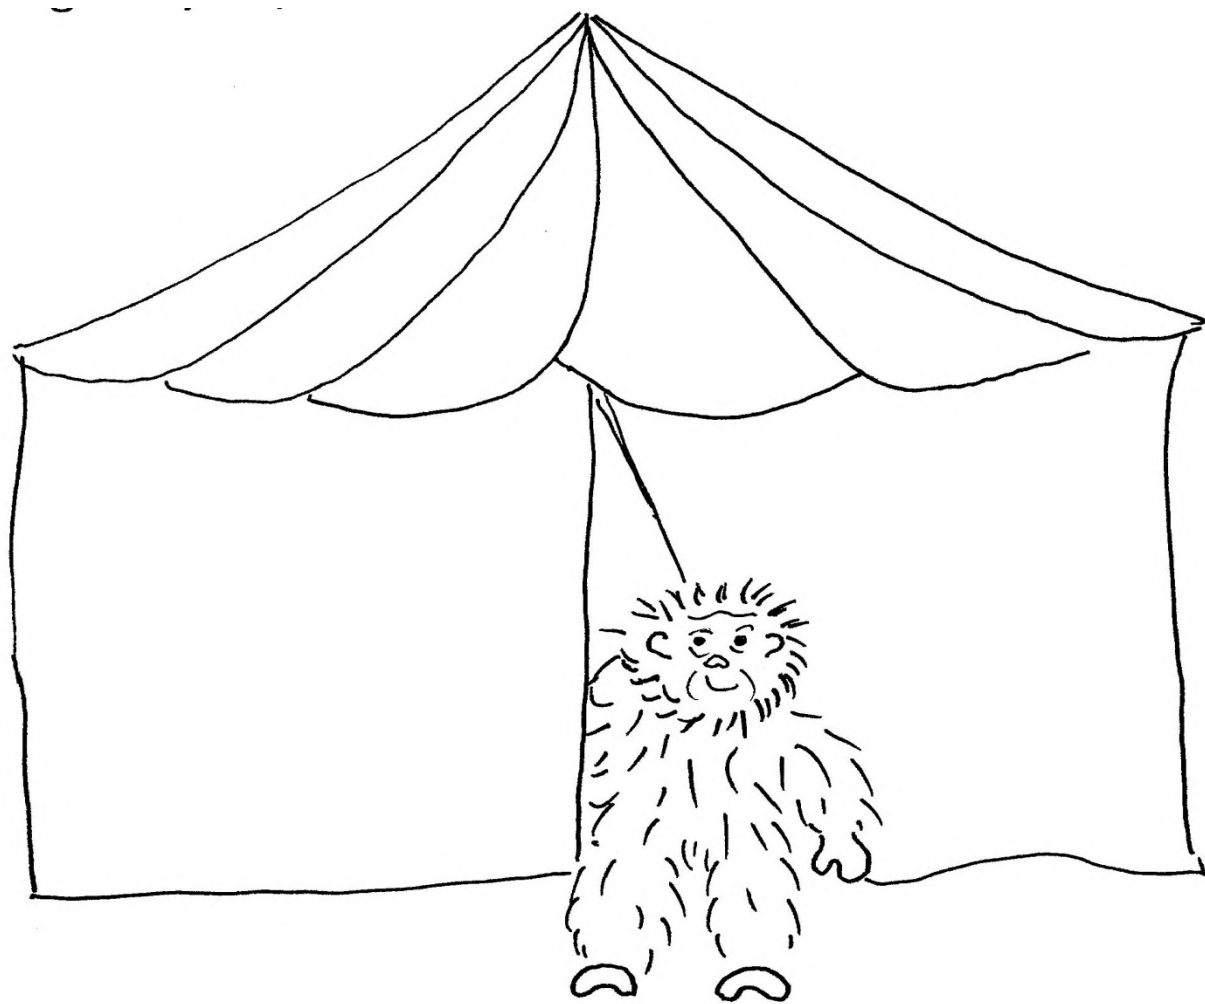

Jenny Smith

Deborah Lynne

Love and Support

Too numerous to name

I am Matilda, Maryella's darling, beautiful, smart, witty, cute, amusing, furry, funny, brown monkey puppet. OK, maybe that is too much information but you get the idea. I love traveling with her and helping her write stories. Today we will learn about clowns and then do some fun activities. Some of the illustrations were done by Maryella's grandchildren: Samantha, Colby, Roger, Isaac, and Carson. Baby Westin is too young to do a lot of drawing. They inspire her and entertain her with their antics. Maryella has been a clown for over thirty years.

Let's look back stage at the circus at a fun room called Clown Alley. It is the dressing room for the clowns. This is where they keep all their costumes, makeup and props and they get ready for the show.

